First Wedding in Tonopah.

Oh Thursday evening, November 14, 1901, the first marriage vow in Tonopah was solemnized in the spacious dining parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kilpatrick and Mr. Harry Christian Stimler of Tonopah and Miss Queen Eleanor Whitford of Los Angeles were united in the bonds of wedlock.

Justice of the Peace Clay Peters, with dignity befitting the occasion, performed the marriage ceremony which included in part the Episcopal Church form and the usual judicial form and also including the presentation of a ring. Miss Myrtle Marsh was bridesmaid and Emmet Johnson was best man. The bride was dressed in a beautiful white silk trimmed with satin ribbon and lace and chrysanthemum decorations; the bridesmaid's dress was a pretty light green. Henrietta cloth, trimmed with all-over lace and satin ribbons.

After the ceremony and congratulations from the guests a fine supper was furnished as Mrs. Kilpatrick knows so well how to do. During the supper Judge Peters and Henry C. Cutting in a very happy manner responded to toasts, after which the guests repaired to the Miners' Exchange Hall and enjoyed themselves at dancing.

Mr. Stimler is one of Tonopah's successful business men and was born in Belmont, Nevada, and is the son of Judge C. H. Stimler, the first postmaster of Belmont, who came to Tonopah to witness the marriage of his son. The bride was a teacher in Los Angeles and is an accomplished singer and has marked ability in public recitations. Both bride and groom are very popular in Tonopah and have the best wishes of the entire community in their new relations.

A VALUABLE PROPOSITION.

An Enterprise That Will Be Productive of Great Results.

Owing to the fact that operations in Tonopah have been confined, almost exclusively, to the ore croppings proper has given birth to the idea that the mines now being operated constitute the entire possibilities of the camp. Future explorations in all portions of the district will demonstrate that this opinion is erroneous and that the great wealth now exposed is but the index to the fabulous riches that will ultimately be unfolded in this great porphyry belt.

With the exception of the G. & H. tunnel, on the east, no effort has been made to trace the Mizpah beyond the extreme westward or eastward croppings of the lode but assurance is now given that the McNamara claim, the first west extension of this famous ledge, will soon receive well merited development and all those familiar with the situation are well satisfied that the exploration of this property will result in the unfolding of ore bodies equally as rich as those from which so much ore is now being extracted.

The east end line of the McNamara joins the west end lines of the Buckboard and Burro and covers not only all the territory in which these two producing veins have a home but the Mizpah also.

That this is exceedingly valuable territory is well known and lack of capital alone has held its development in abeyance.

The Sullivan, Lynch & O'Meara lease, one of the richest in the camp, is only distant from the end line of the McNamara about 600 feet but from this point westward for some distance the Buckboard, or what might more properly be called the Mizpah ledge, is covered by a capping surface, hence, no effort was made to trace it farther west than the Sullivan, Lynch & O'Meara ground.

This deposit is in fact only confined to the flat on which the town is located and the fact that rich float is scattered promiscuously over the McNamara claim indicates that the ledges are near the surface or only covered by a very shallow erosion from the mountains.

The Mizpah is certainly a wonderful ledge and will go down into history as one of the most phenomenal producers of rich ore ever chronicled in the annals of mining and there is no reason why the McNamara should not develop into a great property.

For more than one thousand feet continuously along the Mizpah extremely high grade ore is being extracted showing a continuation of rich ore unprecedented in the history of mining. It must also be borne in mind that the rich ore being extracted constitutes but a meager proportion of the wealth of this ledge. Thousands of tons of ore that will work $50 per ton is being piled up on the various dumps and it is this prodigious quantity of paying rock that insures a long and propitious future for Tonopah.

The McNamara has recently been bonded to J. L. Joseph, the prominent and successful mining operator of Sonoma, California, and Clyde Jackson, of San Francisco, and by whom or a company organized by them, the claim will henceforth be operated. It is their intention to sink a double compartment shaft a distance of at least 200 feet perpendicular and from the bottom of this opening explore the country thoroughly through the medium of a diamond drill. The ledges run east and west with a trend toward the north and the shaft will be sunk a certain distance north of the ledge with the calculation to encounter it at or near the depth above mentioned. A steam hoist will be used in the work and they hope to have the plant on the ground and ready to commence operations about December 1st.

This enterprise will be watched with great interest by everyone identified with the camp, for it will mean a great deal for Tonopah and unquestionably much wealth for its projectors.

They have this assurance that they are taking no chances, but are to the contrary, undertaking a legitimate and almost certain proposition that will be productive of beneficial results just as certain as day follows night. The BONANZA wishes the young men well and can safely assure them and those they represent that they are not identified with a "wild cat" proposition but with a fine mining property as can be found in the Silver State.

Two petitions from Tonopah presented and read to the Board, signed by the citizens and taxpayers of Tonopah. One wherein they ask that the Board provide for the town an extra watchman to watch against fires, several of which have been set by malicious persons of late and to provide funds for the payment of said watchman.

The other petition reads as follows: To the Hon. Board of County Commissioners of Nye County, Nevada:

The undersigned, your petitioners, residents and freeholders of the Town of Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada, would respectfully represent: That for reasons unknown to your petitioners, one Walter C. Gayhart, who made the survey of the town of Tonopah, in laying out what is known as "Bryan Ave." on the plat of said townsite, failed to survey said street through to a connection with Main street, but after bringing said street to within 100 feet of said Main street left the same blocked by certain lots, one of which is claimed by said Gayhart. That said street should be opened through to a connection with Main street.

Both petitions considered by the Board and laid over to their next meeting as the Board would not take the responsibility to act without their legal adviser.

Ordered that the Clerk post notices that the Board will receive bids at their next regular meeting for the erection of guide boards on the Main highways in Nye County, specifications and full description to be stated in said notices.

There being no further business the Board adjourned to December 2, 1901, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Knights of Pythias.

There will be a meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Miners' Exchange Hall on Monday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. All members are requested to be present.

A BRIGHT OUTLOOK.

Other Enterprises That Will Add to the Wealth of Tonopah.

New mining enterprises are now being projected that will lead to the exploration of a large extent of valuable territory immediately adjacent to the Tonopah group and in the near future underground discoveries will be made that will add to the ore production of the camp. Up to the present time development has been confined almost entirely to the Mizpah, Valley View, Buckboard and Burro, but from this time onward, through the instrumentality of capital, deep shaft work and cross cutting therefrom in outside properties will be extensively carried on.

The Clifford group, recently purchased by Salt Lake parties, from which some very fine ore has been extracted from the shallow openings already made, will be systematically opened through a deep, double compartment shaft and stoping ground blocked out for the extraction of ore later on. The Wandering Boy, the most promising of the group, is a strong, well defined ledge that will yield when properly opened an enormous amount of dividend paying ore and it is the intention of the new owners to push operations on this vein vigorously during the winter.

The development of the McNamara lode, mentioned in another column, will result in the thorough exploration of the territory westward from the end lines of the Mizpah and Burro and unquestionably unfold ore bodies of incalculable value to the district.

Gold Hill, a porphyry mound through which a number of rich veins run, will be the scene of great activity after the beginning of the new year. A large amount of surface work has been performed on these ledges, particularly the G. Odenough and McCullough, but it is now the intention of those interested in the property to explore the hill to the depth of several hundred feet and a hoisting plant will be erected for this purpose early in January.

The G. & H. tunnel projected through Oddie mountain, an enterprise that will cut the entire Tonopah group, is now passing through a highly mineralized porphyry belt and any shot may break into ore.

The Mizpah lode, if its surface course does not deviate, cannot be more than 50 feet from the present face of the tunnel but assays that are obtained from the porphyry indicate the presence of an ore body much nearer. This proposition is being vigorously pushed by three shifts and the work will be prosecuted energetically until the entire ore zone in which the mines now being operated exist, is penetrated.

It is predicted by mining men that heavy and rich ore bodies will be discovered in the mountain through the medium of this tunnel, hence its onward course is watched with great interest.

These are only a few of the enterprises that will be in operation here next season for there is a large number of desirable claims and an extended area of mineral bearing territory that will certainly be investigated by deep underground work.

Trib rightly used never disappoints.

Thomas Hull, Alex Piper and W. Solender arrived direct from Nemo on last night's stage. They are here inspecting mining property.

All of the ladies of Tonopah are requested to meet at Miners' Exchange Hall next Monday afternoon at 2 P. M. to arrange for a public Christmas tree.

George Welsh, who is associated with George Brodigan in the new hotel being erected by them in Tonopah, arrived from Bodie on Monday and will reside here permanently.

The G. & H. tunnel is now in 310 feet and is in good looking ground. It is expected ere long that a very rich ledge will be encountered. Six men are employed in driving the tunnel—three eight hour shifts.

The BONANZA is in receipt of Governor Sadler's Thanksgiving proclamation. The work is an artistic gem and speaks volumes for State Printer Maute and his efficient foreman, Will U. Mackey.

A Telephone Line.

R. Hofer has been given a contract by the Tonopah Mining Company of Nevada to build a telephone line between Sodaville and Tonopah, a distance of 60 miles. This news will be received with much satisfaction by the people of this town who all applaud the company for its enterprise. Mr. Hofer expects to have the line completed inside of 50 days.

M. A. Downey, the Carson Furniture Man, carries a large stock of furniture and all kinds of bedding, carpets and matting, etc., write to him. All orders over $20 freight paid to Sodaville.
